LOT 1040

A Chinese Canton export lacquer tray, mid-19th century, of shaped outline, decorated with a gilt scene of figures and pavilions within a border of smaller figural vignettes, the rim filled with dragons, length 56.5cm (some faults), together with a pair of Chinese silk embroidered sleeve panels, framed and glazed as one.

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

1040. Canton tray - generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. There are some minor chips/losses to lacquer around the rim, and also some lifting of lacquer around the areas of loss and chipping. Typical minor nicks and dents, typical minor wear, but gilt decoration is good and vibrant. The two sleeve panels have some light staining to cream silk background, but otherwise in generally good order. Frame is a little worn.
