LOT 1185

A Chinese silk embroidered rectangular panel, late Qing dynasty, worked in coloured and gilt wire threads with lines of text and bowls of fruit and flowers, within scroll frames, 51.5cm x 21.5cm, framed and glazed.

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

1185. The panel has some overall light staining, but no significant damage or repairs. Would have originally been a pair of sleeve panels which have now been stitched together. The silk is crinkled, but colours and stitching generally good. Frame in poor condition.
