Condition Report

One end diamond is a later round brilliant replacement and is sitting at an angle within the setting. The other stones look to be secure in their settings, with some minor wear to the claws. One rose cut diamond is chipped.

The doublets has one or two small chips, one end doublet has a larger chip to the table.

The ring has possibly been resized in the past, with some slight thinning to the back of the shank.

Largest green doublet approx. 2.3mm diameter

Rose cut diamonds vary in size, approx. 1.3mm diameter on average.
