LOT 2015

A 16th century Gothic oak coffer, the later lid above a carved tracery front, raised on later sledge feet, height 51cm, width 126cm, depth 45cm (alterations).

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

2015. Later top, feet and hinges. Numerous repairs to front panel. Holes all-over top of lid and lots of age related marks and wear. The coffer has been restored in recent years so is solid and fully functional.
