

Arts and Crafts Metalwork and Applied Art / Thu, 8th September 2022 / Lot 2362

LOT 2362

An early 20th century art pottery lustre tile, probably Pilkington's Royal Lancastrian, moulded slightly in relief with a stag against a cobalt blue ground painted with fruiting vine, unmarked, 10.2cm square (minor chip to bottom edge).

Estimate: £40 - £60

---

Condition Report

2362. There are two very small nicks to the edge of the tile, top right corner and bottom edge. Also discolouration to the glaze on the top section of the tile, but otherwise in good order. No maker's marks.

Created: Wed, 7th September 2022 10:41