LOT 538

A gold brooch, designed as a cross, detailed '14K', weight 3.1g, width 2.9cm, a gold hollow pendant crucifix, weight 4g, with a neckchain on a cylindrical clasp, a gilt metal and banded agate pendant cross and an Italian mosaic pendant cross.

Estimate: £120 - £160

Condition Report

Gold cross brooch - in generally good condition. The foldover safety catch currently will not release the pin.
Hollow pendant crucifix - may once have contained a Christian relic, there is a pin hole at the bottom where the original pin fitting to hold the back to the front would have been positioned, now lacking. The piece is unmarked. The engraving is in good condition. Although unmarked the piece may have been of Russian manufacture.

Banded agate cross - would originally have been gilt on brass but the gilding is now absent. Small dent at the back at the bottom of the lower arm.

Italian mosaic cross - missing one or two small pieces.
