LOT 1627

A silver mounted Mortlake (Kishere) stoneware hunting jug, circa 1803, an oval plaque beneath the spout depicting horses and grooms, above a continuous sprigged hunt and flanked by a toper, trees and a windmill, beneath the ribbed neck, height 18cm.

Estimate: £150 - £200

Condition Report

In good condition overall. There is a minor manufacturing blemish to the edge of the foot, seen at 9 o'clock on image 7 on our website.

The horse plaque has a minor and indistinct scratch/haircrack at 12 o'clock approx 2cm long, just visible using the zoom function on image 2 on our website.

Otherwise some minor typical surface rubbing to raised decoration, nothing untoward.

No restoration.
