

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 20th October 2022 / Lot 1570

LOT 1570

A Continental porcelain dog head bonbonnière, 19th century, in the form of a pointer, its white head with brown detailing, its mouth open, the brass mounts with engraved floral decoration, black painted numeral '7' to inner side, length 7.5cm.

Estimate: £150 - £200

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.
Minor wear to high points of decoration, nothing untoward.
Some firing cracks visible to interior, but not to exterior.

Created: Thu, 13th October 2022 12:24