LOT 1561

A set of six relief decorated cream glazed square tiles, circa 1900, each with a circular panel depicting a cupid, putto or nymph in varying allegorical vignettes against a celadon ground, unmarked, 20.5cm square. Provenance: sourced from a Manor House in Devon which was demolished in 1952.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

The tiles are Copeland. On closer inspection there is an indistinct impressed mark to two. Overall the tiles are in fundamentally good condition with no cracks or restoration. There is some typical minor crazing and a few insignificant chips.
