

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 20th October 2022 / Lot 1403

LOT 1403

A Meissen porcelain cherub figure allegorical of Spring, late 18th/19th century, adorned with a floral headdress and garland, holding a basket of flowers, indistinct blue mark to base, height 13cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

Minor professional restoration to fingers of each hand and toes of left foot. In addition missing index finger of left hand.

The top flower on the headdress is also professionally restored.

Otherwise the figure is in good condition overall with minor typical losses/chips to the relief flowers and foliage.

Created: Fri, 14th October 2022 15:36