

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 20th October 2022 / Lot 1469

LOT 1469

A Helena Wolfsohn Meissen style two-handled dish, late 19th century, of shaped oval form, painted with a figural Kauffahrtei harbour scene within a gilt rim painted with scattered floral bouquets, the branch handles with relief foliate terminals, underglaze blue 'AR' monogram mark to base, length 31cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

There are a few minor chips/losses to the relief flowers on the branch handles, otherwise the dish is in very good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

There are a few typical very minor and light surface scratches.

The gilding and enamels are good.

Created: Mon, 17th October 2022 09:00