

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 20th October 2022 / Lot 1454

LOT 1454

A small group of Doulton stoneware, late 19th and early 20th century, including a beaker by Harriet E. Hibbut, monogrammed, height 12.2cm, a pair of blue ground mugs with vertical flower stems, height 9.8cm, a teapot and cover and a mustard with silver spoon, together with a sprigged brown stoneware jar with pewter cover (some faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

Beaker - very narrow approx 0.7cm long chip to top rim edge, otherwise in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Mugs - both with indistinct horizontal haircrack to brown band beneath lower handle terminal, otherwise ok.

Teapot - minor horizontal haircrack to lower handle section, otherwise in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Similar pot with cover - long chip and crack to spout, otherwise ok.

Pepper - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Mustard - small chip to inner edge of spoon notch on cover.

Stoneware jar - chips and nicks to outer edge and underside edge of foot, small chips to outer edge of neck rim, minor nick to one relief leaf. Cover probably matched.

Created: Mon, 17th October 2022 10:00