

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 20th October 2022 / Lot 1416

LOT 1416

A Continental porcelain oil lamp base, late 19th/early 20th century, modelled in the form of a monkey holding a fruit, inset with glass eyes, with Kosmos Brenner burner and opaque white glass chimney, impressed blue painted marks to base, height to top of monkey 14cm.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

The ceramic body and glass chimney are in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. The lamp mechanism appears to be working but this cannot be guaranteed. There are a couple of minor cracks to the widest part of the metal mechanism.
