

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 20th October 2022 / Lot 1496

LOT 1496

Thirteen Goebel Hummel figures, including four Hummel Club editions, together with a similar Goebel figure of a boy playing a banjo and six Bavarian Friedel figures of children (minor faults and restoration).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

Goebel figure Evening Prayer - broken through legs and glued.

Goebel figure girl with watering can - spout of watering can restored.

Goebel figure of boy playing violin - handle of umbrella restored.

Goebel figure girl with geese - small chips to tips of hair.

Goebel figure boy with rucksack - feather in hat restored.

Goebel figure boy playing trumpet - restored through neck and minor restoration to fingers.

Friedel figure boy pushing wheelbarrow - tail of bird broken off but available with the lot.

Friedel figure girl with bird and umbrella - quite a few bits of restoration particularly to bird.

Friedel figure boy playing guitar - tip of instrument restored.

Friedel figure girl with deer - tiny glaze nicks to tips of deer's ears.

Remaining items in lot in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Mon, 17th October 2022 14:13