

Glassware / Thu, 20th October 2022 / Lot 1736

LOT 1736

An extensive suite of Belgian faceted cut glass, early to mid-20th century, of octagonal shape with centrally knopped stems and flowerhead shaped feet, comprising eighteen of each of the following: champagne flutes, height 19.5cm, water tumblers, height 12cm, hock glasses, height 13.5cm, white wine, height 12.7cm, claret, height 14.7cm, and aperitif, height 11.5cm (minor faults). Provenance: Baron Bernard Willems.

Estimate: £400 - £600

---

Condition Report

- 17 champagne in good condition.
- 16 claret in good condition.
- 14 small wine in good condition.
- 13 water in good condition.
- 18 hock in good condition.
- 15 aperitif in good condition.

Created: Thu, 20th October 2022 10:07