

Jewellery / Wed, 2nd November 2022 / Lot 632

LOT 632

A Georgian silver and colourless paste brooch, designed as a flower basket, unmarked, weight 11.1g, width 2.7cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

Probably mid-18th century. All the pastes are present, some variation of cut to the pastes. The pastes are in generally quite heavily scratched.

At the back of the vase there is a small oval additional piece of metal, which does not seem to serve any known purpose. The framework at the back of the brooch pin also serves to support the structure of the front of the brooch.

Created: Thu, 27th October 2022 09:56