

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th November 2022 / Lot 1145

LOT 1145

A Chinese famille rose export porcelain teapot and cover, late Qianlong period, the globular body painted with opposing figural panels reserved against an underglaze blue ground of scrolling tendrils, height 15.5cm (later attached metal strainer to spout interior).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1145. The teapot is in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. No cracks, chips or restoration. Typical surface scratches and wear to enamels and gilt. Spout, handle and cover all in good order. As mention in catalogue description, there is a metal strainer attached to spout interior which is attached with pins which are visible on the exterior either side of spout.

Created: Thu, 3rd November 2022 16:18