LOT 1159

A Chinese Fuzhou (Fuzhou) lacquered wood figure of Shoulao, late Qing dynasty, carved standing, holding a peach on a pierced naturalistic base, height 36cm (some faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1159. Left hand has been broken off and reglued and he is missing his staff. Shrinkage crack (approx 13cm long) running down from his right breast to the hem of his tunic. Typical minor nicks/chips, scratches and scuffs to high points. Naturalistic base has a broken and repaired front corner (approx 4cm x 3.5cm). The other front corner has had a larger section broken out and re-glued (approx 7.5cm x 8cm). There are three very faint red printed circular 'Foo Chow' makers marks to underside of the well.
