LOT 1169

A pair of Chinese famille verte porcelain cylinder vases, late Qing dynasty, each painted with fish amidst weeds, iron red six-character mark to bases, height 30.3cm (one repaired), together with a white glazed tripod censer, the squat circular body moulded in relief with dragons, on cylindrical legs, height 19.5cm.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1169, Vase 1 - generally good condition with no cracks or repairs. Some very minor scuffs to rim interior. Typical light surface scratches and wear to enamels.

Vase 2 - the top half of the vase has been broken and re-glued with some minor chip losses along the breaks.

White censer - one foot has been broken and re-glued, otherwise appears to be in generally good condition, minor crazing to glaze.
