

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th November 2022 / Lot 1221

LOT 1221

A Chinese pale celadon jade diminutive cup, probably late Qing dynasty, the circular tapered bowl carved and pierced with a pair of chilong handles, height 2.3cm, width across handles 5.6cm, together with a Chinese pale celadon jade pendant, carved and pierced in the form of lingzhi fungus, length 4.7cm, with wood stand.

Estimate: £150 - £250

---

Condition Report

1221. Cup/bowl is in good condition with only very minor nicks to rim and footrim.

Pendant is in good condition with no apparent damage or repairs, but is tucked down on to its hardwood base.

Created: Mon, 7th November 2022 10:28