

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th November 2022 / Lot 1240

LOT 1240

A group of four Chinese Ming style sancai glazed pottery figures, each with detachable head and green and ochre glazed robes, standing on stepped rectangular bases, height 33cm (faults and repairs).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1240. All figures in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. There is some damage to hands, with two broken at wrist, others detached and some chips. Typical wear to glazed.

Created: Mon, 7th November 2022 10:32