LOT 1224

A Chinese blue and white porcelain tripod censer and cover, late 19th century, the domed cover with Buddhistic lion finial above painted bats and vapours and a pierced band, the squat globular body painted with dragons amidst vapours, beneath a brass rim and a pair of loop handles, raised on three outswept legs, height 25.4cm, together with a carved hardwood stand.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1224. The censer appears to be in good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches to glaze. There is a brass rim mount so unable to tell if any damage beneath this, but there are no signs of any damage or repairs to this area.

Wood stand in generally good order with only a small section broken out and re-glued.
