

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th November 2022 / Lot 1149

LOT 1149

A graduated set of three Chinese blue and white export porcelain oval meat dishes, late Qianlong/early Jiaqing period, each painted with pavilions, figures and trees in a coastal landscape, each shaped rim with feathered border, copied from a standard English creamware design, lengths 26.4cm, 34.8cm (chipped) and 43cm. Note: a dish of the same pattern is illustrated by Geoffery A. Godden in 'Oriental Export Market Porcelain...', 1979, page 155, No. 65.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1149. The mid-sized dish has a shallow chip to underside of rim, otherwise dishes in good condition with no significant damage, cracks or repairs. Only very minor surface scratches to glaze.

Created: Wed, 9th November 2022 15:30