

Objects of Virtu / Thu, 1st December 2022 / Lot 2302

LOT 2302

A late 19th century blue glass and white metal lidded scent bottle of bullet form, the hinged lid and collar with foliate engraving, length 8cm, together with four other mainly late 19th century blue flash overlaid and silver mounted scent bottles.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

2302. Tapering cylindrical glass scent bottle, length 11cm - glass is in good order, hinged cap works well but is dented, glass stopper has been 'silvered' to top.

Plain blue glass scent bottle - on good overall condition.

Rectangular bottle, 8.5cm - glass is good, stopper is a replacement and the hinged cap is very dented.

2nd rectangular bottle - two chips near the base, stopper is stuck, hinge is loose but cap is in good condition.

Waisted bottle, 8cm - several chips to glass, hinged lid very dented.

Created: Tue, 22nd November 2022 14:59