A 20th century George III style twin pillar mahogany 'D' end dining table, possibly by William Tillman, the top with two extra leaves, height 74cm, extended length 360cm, depth 122cm.

Condition Report

2226. Generally the table is in good condition with only some minor scuffs and marks. The bearers are present, but do not have the peg stops that insert into the ends. We have supplied four matched up forks so the table can be displayed, but unfortunately the table came in without them.
