LOT 335

A George III silver coffee pot of baluster form, the domed hinged lid above an ebonized scroll handle and scroll moulded spout, on a stepped circular foot, London 1762 by Louis Black, weight 710.9g, height 23.5cm (later bird finial).

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

335. The pot is in generally good order, but it does have a small dent just below the hallmarks and other small dents to body, particularly around the low belly. Hinge is good. Spout in good order and foot sits nice and flat. Good clear hallmarks. Handle securely fixed. Replacement bird finial to cover.
