LOT 2335

A late 19th century diamond and gem set gold cased propelling pencil, the outer case with suspension ring and set with a band of diamonds, the pull-out pencil set with red gem terminal surrounded by a band of blue gems, length 3.8cm.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

2335. Age related wear to the mounts of the band of stones around the red gem terminal, with some areas slightly misshapen. The red terminal has a hairline crack and other minor surface wear. The propelling function does not work, lead looks about 1.5mm, pen is gold cased, not hallmarked.
