

Cameras and Scientific Instruments / Thu, 8th December 2022 / Lot 1243

LOT 1243

A late 19th century gilt lacquered brass cased pocket barometer, thermometer and compass, the silvered barometer dial detailed 'A. Carter, Exeter', the reverse with central mother-of-pearl compass dial with a mercury thermometer tube surround, diameter 5cm, together with a plated cased pocket barometer/altimeter with silvered dial, diameter 5.4cm, leather cased.

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

1243. Gilt pocket barometer is working, dial slightly worn/discoloured, case with typical light wear. Mercury thermometer intact and working. Compass working. Glazed front of case a little loose. Plated barometer is working, dial a little worn, small dent to back of case.

Created: Thu, 1st December 2022 11:13