

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 12th January 2023 / Lot 1542

LOT 1542

A Dutch Delft dish, probably De Porceleyne Claeuw, first half 18th century, painted in blue with a blossoming tree before a fence, the notched rim with stylized flowers and scrollwork, the rim underside with stars and circles, blue painted factory marks, diameter 34.5cm, together with a Ken Edwards Mexican pottery teapot and cover.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

Delft dish - typical fritting to rim, otherwise in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Some typical light surface scratches to glaze.

Teapot - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Tue, 3rd January 2023 11:21