

Glassware / Thu, 12th January 2023 / Lot 1734

LOT 1734

Two double series opaque twist stem wine glasses, late 18th century, the first with rounded funnel bowl engraved with flowers above a plain stem with a pair of corkscrews outside a pair of spiral threads, on a conical foot, height 13.2cm, the second with pointed rounded funnel bowl with fluted moulding beneath an engraved foliate band, on a plain stem with a pair of corkscrews outside a single corkscrew, on a conical foot, height 14.2cm.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

First glass - teeny tiny uneven manufacturing blemish to edge of foot, some horizontal scratching to inner top edge of bowl.

Second glass - a few tiny and minor digs to bowl exterior, otherwise typical light surface wear.

Created: Tue, 3rd January 2023 12:22