

Glassware / Thu, 12th January 2023 / Lot 1702

LOT 1702

An Art Deco opalescent French glass circular bowl by G. Vallon, circa 1930, moulded in relief to the underside with three bunches of cherries, moulded marks, diameter 23.5cm, together with a similar opalescent bowl, moulded with a geometric pattern, diameter 23.7cm.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

Cherries bowl - tiny and indistinct nick to exterior top rim edge amidst moulding, otherwise in good condition overall with a few light typical surface scratches and some minor wear to exterior moulding.

Other bowl - a lot of nibbled chips to inner circumference of top rim, otherwise in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Typical light wear.

Created: Mon, 9th January 2023 11:05