

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 12th January 2023 / Lot 1463

LOT 1463

A large Staffordshire porcelain two-handled loving cup, dated 1849, painted with a foxhound standing over a dead hare in a landscape setting, titled 'DRUMMER' opposing a gilt 'H' monogram above the date '1849' within a frame of hops and barley, flanked by gilt weed above gilt banding, unmarked, height 15cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

The cup 'rings' nicely when tapped.

The enamels and gilding are in good order with minimal typical wear/rubbing commensurate with age and use.

Created: Mon, 9th January 2023 12:32