

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 12th January 2023 / Lot 1535

LOT 1535

A Mintons pottery pink glazed small bottle vase, late 19th century, designed by Christopher Dresser, decorated with stems of white roses beneath a gilded collar band to the neck, heightened with four pink 'jewels', indistinct impressed marks, height 9.7cm.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

There is some fine crazing to the glaze visible to the areas that are not pink glazed.

There are some minor surface blemishes commensurate with age, nothing untoward.

Created: Tue, 10th January 2023 10:31