

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 12th January 2023 / Lot 1416

LOT 1416

An Hispano Moresque lustre pottery circular dish, probably 18th century, painted to the interior with a central medallion against a ground of stylized foliage, the underside with birds amidst foliage, diameter 39cm (extensively repaired), together with a Dutch Delft blue painted charger, diameter 30.5cm (faults).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

1416. The Hispano Moresque dish has been in numerous pieces and has undergone extensive repair. The Dutch Delft charger has several large chips to the rim and areas of age related wear.

Created: Wed, 11th January 2023 13:03