

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 12th January 2023 / Lot 1470

LOT 1470

A Samson porcelain Chinese armorial style cabaret service, late 19th/early 20th century, painted in the famille rose palette with armorials surrounded by flowers within gilt overlaid cobalt blue borders, comprising shaped square tray, length 36.5cm, teapot and cover, sucrier and cover, jug and two cups, red painted marks to bases (some restoration).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1470. Restoration to lid and teapot, chip to inner rim on lid of sucrier. Restoration to handle of one cup, restoration to rim of other cup. General wear to gilding and age related minor wear.

Created: Wed, 11th January 2023 13:08