

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 12th January 2023 / Lot 1539

LOT 1539

Six creamware asparagus servers, circa 1790, of traditional fan shape with feather edge rims heightened in blue, length 6.8cm each, together with a similar pearlware shell shaped dish (minor faults).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

1539. Bowl has large chip to rim and two hairline cracks plus numerous small chips around the rim. Small chips in several places to the six asparagus servers. General wear consistent with age and use.

Created: Wed, 11th January 2023 13:20