

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Thu, 19th January 2023 / Lot 2515

LOT 2515

A Victorian gilt metal mounted rotating desk seal with a mother-of-pearl handle, length 9.5cm, five unmounted hardstone intaglios, a late 19th century sterling silver propelling pencil by S. Mordan, a 'Stratnoid' compact, the cover decorated with the head of a dog, four colourless paste buttons and a group of other collectors' items.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

2515. PLEASE NOTE, this condition report does not cover every item in the Lot - if you require information on the condition of any other item, please request this.

Rotating desk seal - missing one stone, the remaining five stones are in good condition, as is the body.

Created: Wed, 11th January 2023 14:55