LOT 3069

An unusual 19th century brass mounted copper powder flask of gun stock form by A.M. Flask & Cap Co, length 22cm (some opening and evidence of solder to joining seams).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

3069. Spring action is good. Seam all around body appears to have split apart at some time, areas along seam with solder repairs, though not done to a good standard. Some areas of bruising to body, some more prolific than others. Stamped name is to base below nozzle.
