LOT 1099

A Chinese blue and white porcelain bottle vase, mark of Qianlong but later Qing dynasty, the globular body and cylindrical narrow neck painted with figures and pavilions in a mountainous coastal landscape, underglaze blue six-character mark to base, height 38cm, with carved hardwood stand. Provenance: purchased in the early 1900s by the current vendor's great-grandfather, Albert Purden, who was an inspector in the Hong Kong police force before retiring in 1925, and thence by descent.

Estimate: £500 - £800

Condition Report

1099. Good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear, but nothing of any real significance.
