LOT 1020

A Chinese gilt copper and cloisonné enamel Tibetan style prayer wheel, mark of Qianlong but probably later, the cylindrical outer case and cover decorated with a formal design of polychrome lotus and scrolling tendrils on a turquoise ground, framing four apertures, the similarly decorated inner cylindrical wheel framing six Lancha characters, rotating via a central upright spindle handle with foliate finial, four-character mark to base, height 25.5cm. Provenance: the property of a West Sussex private collector.

Estimate: £1,000 - £1,500

Condition Report

1020. Generally good clean condition. Some minor pitting to enamel but nothing of real significant. Typical light surface scratches and wear to enamel and gilt metalwork. Inner drum rotates smoothly via central handle.
