

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 26th January 2023 / Lot 1119

LOT 1119

A group of four Chinese porcelain snuff bottles, late 19th/20th century, comprising a black ground cylindrical bottle, decorated with a dragon amidst vapours, height 8.2cm, two blue and white cylindrical bottles, painted with dragons, heights 9.5cm and 7.9cm (minor hairline to base of one), and a square section blue and white bottle, mark of Qianlong but late Qing dynasty, painted with figural panels, underglaze blue four-character mark to base, height 8.5cm (minor glaze fritting).

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

1119. Black ground gourd bottle - generally good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs. Some slight glaze blemishes to black ground. Typical surface scratches and wear.

Tall blue and white cylindrical bottle - crazing to glaze but otherwise ok with no chips, cracks or restoration.

Slight discolouration/staining to glaze.

Shorter blue and white cylindrical bottle - hairline crack around the base of bottle, otherwise good condition with no chips or repairs.

Square bottle - generally in good condition with no cracks or repairs, but minor areas of glaze loss to corners of the body.

Created: Mon, 23rd January 2023 09:40