LOT 1083

A Chinese Imperial style pale celadon jade seal, 20th century, the surmount carved with a pair of intertwined dragons, on a cube base, the sides finely incised with lines of text, the base deeply carved with seal mark, height 4.3cm, together with a brown patinated bronze cube-form box and cover, the sides incised with lines of text, the cover interior with matching cast seal mark, height 5.8cm.

Estimate: £500 - £800

Condition Report

1083. The seal is in good condition with no significant damage or repairs. No chips or cracks. The bronze cube box is in generally sound condition, however the surface has patches of darker raised patina, possibly in manufacture to imitate or suggest it is older.
