

Silver and Plate / Wed, 15th February 2023 / Lot 356

LOT 356

A group of silver, comprising a Victorian napkin ring with engraved decoration, Birmingham 1889 by George Unite, a souvenir spoon, detailed 'Ashford Church', London 1903, a set of ten pastry forks, London 1905, cased, and a set of six red enamelled bean end coffee spoons, Birmingham 1936, cased, weight 200.7g, a small group of Continental sterling silver, comprising a Norwegian caddy spoon, detailed 'M.S. Venus', length 11.5cm, and a set of six Norwegian blue enamelled coffee spoon by J. Tostrup, and a set of three Canadian souvenir teaspoons with enamelled maple leaf decoration, weight 154.7g, together with a group of plated cutlery.

Estimate: £120 - £160

Condition Report

356 - Please note, this condition report is not on the whole Lot. If you require information on any of the other items please request this.

Two of the 'Tostrup' spoons are lacking enamel to the rear of the handles. Otherwise in good condition.

Created: Wed, 8th February 2023 15:32