

Fine Art / Wed, 15th February 2023 / Lot 50

LOT 50

Edward Algernon Douglas - 'Spring Jack' (Prize Hereford Bull), 19th century oil on canvas, signed, titled and dated 1892 recto, provenance letter verso, 26.5cm x 36.5cm, within a stained wood frame.

Provenance: the collection of a notable, late Hampshire-based breeder of Hereford cattle.

Estimate: £1,500 - £2,500

---

Condition Report

50. Craquelure throughout. UV examination highlights a small area of overpainting to the right of the fenceline and also touches around the bull's head. Small scratch to surface in the sky. Old varnish has discoloured considerably and yellowed. Frame in ok condition, but with some scuffs, scratches and dents to extremities. This work has not been examined out of the frame.

Created: Fri, 10th February 2023 10:48