LOT 1300

An impressive late 19th century rosewood cased regulator wall clock with single train weight-driven movement, the 11-inch circular enamelled dial with two subsidiary dials and inscribed 'R. Maurer Eisenbach', the dome top case with glazed door and tapered apron, height 163cm, with pendulum, weight and winding key.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1300 - The clock is in generally good condition. The case has typical veneer splits particularly to the top of the dome. Typical scuffs, nicks and wear to case. Minor repair to case at locking plate and hinges. Hinges are replacements. Dial in generally good condition with a few minor marks but no significant damage or repairs. The going train pulley rope is snapped so unable to set up to see it is runs but movement looks to be in decent order. Will require a clean/service and minor repairs to return to working order.
