LOT 1264

A late 19th century French gilt metal and porcelain clock garniture, the mantel clock with eight day movement striking on a bell, the porcelain dial and panels decorated with cherubs, birds and flowers within pink borders, the case with urn surmount and cast with lion masks, height 38.5cm, with pendulum, flanked by a pair of similar urns, height 28cm (restoration).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1264. All a bit dusty and dirty, so would benefit from a clean. Metalwork in generally good order with no significant damage.

Clock with tiny chip to top of porcelain dial, otherwise porcelain panels in generally good order with only typical light wear.

One of the urns has restoration to rim and body of the porcelain.

The clock does not currently run.
