LOT 2638

A late 19th century enamelled copper tondo portrait miniature depicting a young girl wearing a large hat, indistinctly signed in red, diameter 8.5cm, mounted within a period gilt brass frame.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

2638. The enamelled plaque (diameter 8.5cm) is in overall good condition with no obvious losses or damages, just minor age related wear.

The fabric on the frame is worn and faded. The brass part of the frame is lacking a section of the foliate surmount and is very worn.
