LOT 2460

An early 20th century Continental black composite cased singing bird musical box, the top with a hinged gilt metal lid enclosing a pierced grill and pop-up singing bird, the front with sliding button, width 10cm, cased with original winding key.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

2460. Some overall very minor hairline scratching to case, but otherwise in good condition. The bird appear to be in working order, but does sometimes need a tap to start. The lid of the outer case has a small area of surface loss.
