LOT 572

A Victorian gold, banded agate and black enamelled mourning ring, the agate intaglio carved as a butterfly within a serpent surround, inscribed within the shank 'In memory of Thomas Edwards Esq Ob 9 June 1848 Aet 45', unmarked, weight 3.3g, ring size approx J.

Estimate: £180 - £220

Condition Report

A couple of noticeable losses to the outline of the snake on the intaglio, both to the left and right of the head of the snake.

Some losses to the black enamel shoulder decoration, on both sides.

The back of the shank is currently a little misshaped. The inscription is still quite crisp to the interior of the shank.

Typical light scratching and wear to the setting/shank otherwise.
