LOT 745

A gold, colourless gem and enamelled pendant, designed as the head of Nefertiti, unmarked, weight 8.9g, length 4.3cm.

Estimate: £200 - £250

Condition Report

Three colourless gems are damaged, badly chipped. They are not diamonds but imitation gemstones. There are a few small losses to the enamel in places. The enamel work overall is not as precise or of the highest quality as you might hope.

Under a loupe there are some general light scratching to the metalwork. The piece is unmarked but is gold, higher than 9ct gold, untested.

Some slight wear to the surmount where it has been worn with a neckchain in the past. The surmount is attached via a ring, so does move.

The piece is possibly 1960s/70s.

The piece would benefit from a clean.
